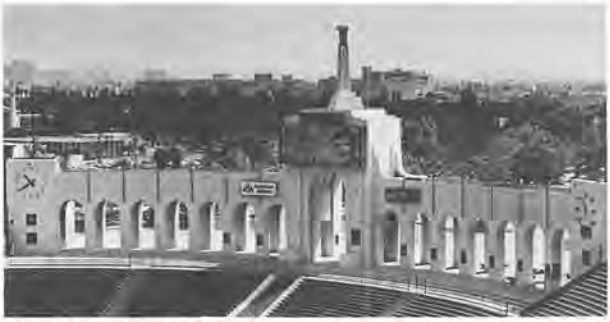
...AND THE 12th GAME?

Yes, the Pacific-8 Conference champion will climax its 1974 campaign by meeting the Big 10 Conference champion in the granddaddy of all post-season football games, the world-famous Rose Bowl, in Pasadena, Calif., on Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1975, at 2:00 p.m.

ON THE COVER is a special pre-season salute to UCLA's new football coach, Dick Vermeil, on Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum's sophisticated and computerized scoreboard (25 feet deep by 48½ feet wide), located at peristyle end of the Bruins' gridiron home, one of the world's greatest football stadiums. Contributing to this unique cover were Ken Good, Coliseum/Sports Arena; Buddy Dyer, Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation; Stan Troutman, ASUCLA Photo Dept.; and Frank Stewart, UCLA Athletic News Bureau. The final art work was done by Grant Swanlund, UCLA Publications Service.



UCLA's 12th Head Football Coach . . .

DICK VERMEIL

. . . A New Coach with Top Credentials

UCLA'S PERSONABLE new head coach, 37-year-old Dick Vermeil, exudes the football fervor of, say, John Ralston and George Allen, and reflects the direct, realistic football attitude of, say, Tommy Prothro and Chuck Knox.

This isn't surprising because Richard Albert "Dick" Vermeil served under these four super coaches and learned invaluable lessons from each in the art of his chosen profession: coaching football.

His duties at Stanford under Ralston for four years included coaching the freshmen (1965), the varsity defensive secondary (1966), the offensive backfield and passing offense (1967), and the same plus quarterbacks (1968).

Then he moved to the professional ranks for a year (1969) of coaching under Allen for the Los Angeles Rams. He tutored the special teams and coordinated the kicking game.

The next year (1970) he joined Prothro at UCLA where he did an outstanding job as the offensive coordinator and coach of the quarterbacks. He followed Prothro to the Rams where he had the same assignments as at UCLA plus handling pass receivers for the next two years (1971-72).

When Knox succeeded Prothro as the Ram boss last year (1973), he retained Mr. V. as a backfield coach, handling running backs and special teams.

Besides his apprenticeship under four coaching greats, Vermeil also has the added dimension of having coached on the high school and junior college level at the outset of his career. His first job was an assistant at Del Mar High School in San Jose, Calif., in 1959.

He then became head coach at Hillsdale HS in San Mateo, Calif., for three years (1960-62). He moved to the JC ranks in 1963 as the offensive and defensive backfield coach at College of San Mateo. The next year (1964) he was the head coach at Napa (Calif.) College.

He continued his football ascension by joining Ralston at Stanford. He's been in big-time football ever since then (1965).

And now his cycle is complete. He's become UCLA's 12th head football coach, succeeding Pepper Rodgers last December after the latter resigned to return to Georgia Tech, his alma mater, as headman.

It was only one week after Rodgers resignation (Dec. 5) that Vermeil was recommended (Dec. 12) as the new UCLA coach by Athletic Director J. D. Morgan and confirmed by Chancellor Charles E. Young.

His selection was warmly received in all quarters. Vermeil

WHAT FOUR SUPER FOOTBALL COACHES SAY ABOUT THEIR FORMER ASSISTANT

JOHN RALSTON, Denver Broncos (former Stanford head coach): "A super football coach. Dick has the knowledge of the game, the enthusiasm; and he absolutely has as much dedication as anyone I've ever seen. There is no question that UCLA football will continue in the highest collegiate tradition under Dick Vermeil."

GEORGE ALLEN, Washington Redskins (former Los Angeles Rams head coach): "I originally hired Dick Vermeil, even though he lacked professional experience, because of his hunger to succeed, to work, to study and because of his enthusiasm. He did a great job for me. If he had wanted a job in Washington he could have come with me at any time. I am very happy for Dick; this is a great break for both UCLA and for him."

TOMMY PROTHRO, San Diego Chargers (former UCLA and Rams head coach): "I think Dick is an outstanding young coach with all the qualities to be a real success at UCLA."

CHUCK KNOX, Los Angeles Rams: "Our loss is UCLA's gain. We're losing a real fine football coach who has done a fine job for the Rams, and I'm sure he will do the same for UCLA."

himself was and is excited at the opportunity. As he puts it, "I have what I've always wanted — a head coaching job at a wonderful school with tremendous people. But success is not in getting the job, it is in doing it."

Morgan adds, "Dick Vermeil has outstanding credentials to be UCLA's head coach. His invaluable experience with four of the nation's great coaches well qualifies him to do an excellent job of carrying on a fine UCLA football program."

Vermeil is "all" Californian. He not only was born in the Golden State but has been reared, educated and coached here.

He was born in Calistoga, in Napa Valley wine country in northern California, on Oct. 30, 1936. He is the second oldest of four children, with one older sister, Laura (now Mrs. Frank Giammona of Calistoga), and two younger brothers, Stan, an Industrial Arts teacher at Santa Rosa (Calif). JC and Al, head football coach at Moreau High in Fremont, Calif.

He was a four-sport athlete at Calistoga High (enrollment, 125), winning all-league honors in football and basketball and also lettering in baseball and track.

He then went to Napa JC for two years (1954-55) where he won all-conference honors as a quarterback and also competed in track.

He transferred to San Jose State University where he starred at quarterback for two years (1956-57) and, in his senior season, was voted his team's "Most Improved Player."

Dick graduated with departmental honors with a B.A. degree in Physical Education in June, 1958, and then received his Master's Degree in P.E. from San Jose State in 1959. He started his coaching career the same year.

He is married to the former Carolyn Drake of Calistoga and they have three children, sons Richard (Rich), 17, and David, 15, and daughter Nancy, 13. They make their home in Woodland Hills in San Fernando Valley.

COMPILED BY UCLA ATHLETIC NEWS BUREAU — Vic Kelley, Manager; Frank Stewart, Assistant Manager and Guide Editor; Chuck Weinstock, Statistician; UCLA photos by ASUCLA Photo Dept., Stan Troutman, Mgr.; Patt Koehler, Secretary; Marc Dellins and Kent Derdivanis, Guide Assistants. (Printed by Stationers Corporation)

This Guide, supplying basic information about UCLA's 1974 football team, is to assist sportswriters, radio, TV and other news personnel. For further material contact UCLA Athletic News Bureau, 405 Hilgard Ave., Los Angeles, Calif. 90024. Phone numbers are 825-3844 or 825-3732, Area Code 213. Football fans may order copies of this book for $2.00 (including 50 cents for handling and first class postage) by mailing check or money order to UCLA Athletic News Bureau.

NEWS MEDIA INFORMATION

THE LOS ANGELES COLISEUM — Seating capacity 92,000, four miles from downtown Los Angeles, 10 from Hollywood, 15 from Pasadena. Cabs may be phoned from Coliseum and met at Hoover St. at South Park Dr., opposite Gate 4.

NEWS MEDIA ACCOMMODATIONS — Admissions limited to working news personnel, telegraphers, radio-TV announcers, technicians and others whose duties entail needs of media bench. Non-working women and children not admitted. Requests should be made to Vic Kelley, Mgr., Athletic News Bureau, UCLA, Los Angeles, Calif. 90024. Requests for accommodations for UCLA games away from home should be sent to:

TENNESSEE GAME, SEPT. 7

Haywood Harris, Sports Information Director, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee 37916.

IOWA GAME, SEPT. 21

George Wine, Sports Information Director, University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242.

UTAH GAME, OCT. 5

Ron Fessenden, Sports Information Director, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah 84112.

CALIFORNIA GAME, OCT. 26

Buck McCleneghan, Sports Information Director, University of California, Berkeley, California 94720.

WASHINGTON GAME, NOV. 2

Mark Lookabaugh, Sports Information Director, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington 98195.

OREGON STATE GAME, NOV. 16

John Eggers, Sports Information Director, Oregon State University, Gill Coliseum, Corvallis, Oregon 97331.

RADIO BOOTHS — In the Southern California area, Radio Station KMPC (UCLA's official station) and a special UCLA sports network broadcast each game exclusively. Requests from stations outside this area should be addressed to Vic Kelley at the above address. KTLA (Channel 5) is UCLA's official television station, telecasting all Bruin home and road games for delayed showing. Requests for TV rights should be addressed to UCLA Athletic Director J. D. Morgan

WIRE FACILITIES — Since there are no permanent facilities in the Los Angeles Coliseum, those wishing to send stories from the media box should contact Western Union or SportsComm or plan to order, in advance, a telephone to be installed at the Coliseum and should bring their own Telecopier. SportsComm plans to have at least two Telecopiers at every game; orders may be placed by telephoning Dick Bassler at Inglewood, Calif., (213) 671-3728, or Bill Bender at Cherry Hill, N. J., (609) 424-4111.

PHOTOGRAPHY — Camera ribbons entitle photographers to shoot pictures from the sidelines, also media box. Restraining lines at 35-yard lines allow working only from there to goal line on the field. By special arrangement one photographer from each Los Angeles area newspaper and picture syndicate is allowed to operate between 35-yard lines DURING FIRST QUARTER ONLY. A special armband must be worn so field guards may readily determine who is entitled to this privilege. ONLY PHOTOGRAPHERS WORKING WITH CAMERAS AND WEARING PROPER CREDENTIALS ARE ALLOWED AT SIDELINES.

SERVICES — Include play-by-play report, half time and final statistics, lineups, substitutions, scoring by quarters, scoring and officials. Also post-game dressing room quotes by each head coach are furnished.

THE 1974 BRUINS

RETURNING VETERANS — 33 returning lettermen from a team that was 9-2-0 in 1973, was ranked No. 9 in the final UPI poll (12th in AP's) and was the leading rushing team in the nation. Two additional lettermen from 1972 also return. Returnees include: Offense — 1 split end, 3 tackles, 3 guards, 1 center, 3 tight ends, 1 quarterback, 5 running backs and 1 flanker. Defense — 2 tackles, 5 inside linebackers, 2 nose guards, 3 outside linebackers, 2 cornerbacks and 3 safeties. Of the returnees, the following started 1973 games: Offense — Norm Andersen, se, 5; Gene Clark, lt (formerly lg), 11; Bob Reyes, lt (formerly rt), 1; Randy Cross, lg (formerly c), 5; Art Kuehn, c, 6; Raymond Burks, te, 8; John Sciarra, qb, 3; Russel Charles, lh, 7; Eddie Ayers, 1h, 4; Charlie Schuhmann, rh (formerly fullback), 5; Steve Monahan, fl (formerly se), 6. Defense — Tom Waddell, ilb (formerly rlb), 3; Greg Norfleet, ng, 8; Mike Martinez, ng, 1; Fulton Kuykendall, ilb (formerly rlb), 8; Gene Settles, ilb (formerly left linebacker), 5; Eugene Jones, ilb (formerly te), 3; Pat Sweetland, rt (formerly lt), 7; Dale Curry, olb (formerly dre), 1; John Nanoski, lc, 8; Matt Fahl, rc (formerly lc), 1; Kent Pearce, s, 11; Herschel Ramsey, s, 2. The most notable changes include moving Clark from offensive guard to tackle to make room for ex-center Cross at the guard spot, thus giving the Bruins a monstrous five-man interior line averaging 258 pounds per man. Another important move is the switch of Eugene Jones from tight end to inside linebacker to give the Bruins more size and quickness, along with game experience. Dual purpose John Sciarra, UCLA's leading passer and fourth best rusher in '73, will trigger new Coach Dick Vermeil's new Veer-T formation, with Charles and Tyler, both of whom averaged better than six yards per carry. Yardagewise, Sciarra gained 496, Charles 306 and Tyler 246 while Schuhmann was sandwiched in there with 472 yards. There will be more emphasis on the passing of Sciarra, who completed 27 of 62 attempts for 503 yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions. Defensively, Kuykendall, who is UCLA's top All-America candidate, easily led Bruin tacklers a year ago with 170 and was high in several other defensive categories. Clark is another performer who rates high in pre-season "All" consideration.

LOSSES — 22 letterman including : Offense — 2 tackles, 1 guard, 1 quarterback, 2 right halfbacks, 1 fullback and 1 place kicker. Defense — 2 ends, 5 tackles, 1 nose guard, 1 linebacker, 2 cornerbacks and 3 safetymen. Following are the starters lost: Offense — Ed Kezirian, lt, 11; Steve Klosterman, rg, 11; Al Oliver, rt, 10; Mark Harmon, qb, 8; Kermit Johnson, rh, 11; James McAlister, fb, 6; and Efren Herrera, place kicker. Defense — Cal Peterson, le, 11; Gerald Peeke, lt, 3; Gerry Roberts, lt, 1; Rick McCray, ng, 1; Bill Sandifer, rt, 11; Fred McNeil, re, 9; Rick Baska, 11b, 6; Alton McSween, lc, 2; Jimmy Allen, rc, 11; Jim Bright, s, 9. When you think of losses, you immediately think of Kermit Johnson, who set no less than seven individual game, season and career records and became an all-time great with his 1129 yards in a single season and 2495 yards for his career to become No. 1 in Bruin annals. His 7.53 per play average in 1973 also was a new Pacific-8 record. Place kicker Efren Herrera also set seven UCLA records to establish himself as UCLA's premier PAT and field goal kicker. And to show the quality of the losses, look at the honors won by some of the departed Bruin stars: Ed Kezirian, lt, All-Coast and All-Conference; Steve Klosterman, rg, All-Coast and All-Conference; Al Oliver, rt, All-Coast; Kermit Johnson, rh, All-Coast, All-Conference and All-American; Efren Herrera, k, All-American; Cal Peterson, dle, All-Coast; Fred McNeill, dre, All-Coast and All-American; Jimmy Allen, rc, All-Coast, All-Conference and All-American; Jim Bright, s, All-Conference.

PROMISING SOPHOMORES — Tight End Raymond Burks, who started 8 games last Fall, and right Half Wendell Tyler probably stand out as the most promising of this group although Quarterback Jeff Dankworth poses a definite threat to John Sciarra. Bob Crawford, drt, made his move in the Spring as a probable starter. Outside Linebacker Raymond Bell and split End Michael Coulter also have good opportunity to move up.

JUNIOR COLLEGE TRANSFERS — While only seven junior college transfers reported to Spring Practice, most of them have a good chance to move into the top two at their positions. Tops is king-sized Cliff Frazier, 6-5½ and 261, from Ft. Scott, Kans., Community Junior College, moved into the No. 1 defensive left tackle position. Wally Henry, a lightning-fast flanker from San Diego City College; Terry Tautolo, inside linebacker from Long Beach City College; and Jim Williams, right guard from Pierce College, are definite threats. In addition, punter-place kicker Brett White, from Golden West College, may be outstanding. The others are Oscar Edwards, a cornerback from Riverside City College, and Cornell Webster, also a cornerback, from Scottsdale, Ariz., Community College.

OFFENSE — This is the year of the Veer at UCLA. After two seasons of the Wishbone, Coach Dick Vermeil installed the Veer-T attack to place more emphasis on the passing game and take advantage of the dual talents of Quarterback John Sciarra. The new offense will always have two split receivers and will present a challenge to opposing defenses to solve a more diversified system.

PASSING — Coach Dick Vermeil expects much improvement after a Spring of emphasis on the aerial game. Sciarra completed 27 out of 62 passes last Fall for 503 yards, 3 touchdowns and only 3 interceptions. He and backup quarterback Jeff Dankworth figure to throw more to a greater variety of receivers running more intricate pass patterns.

RUNNING — While the Bruins will have two excellent running quarterbacks, particularly Sciarra, who netted 496 yards on 72 carries for a 6.9 average and 5 touchdowns, Coach Vermeil will have to get come-through performances from rushers at the two set positions. At the left and right half spots, he has speed, but not much in the way of size. Now recovered from a shoulder injury, right Half Charlie Schuhmann (472 yards on 87 carries last season), left Half Russel Charles (306 on 45 tries), right Half Wendell Tyler (246 on 41 tries) and left Half Eddie Ayers (239 on 55 carries) are the top candidates. Off Spring Drills, Tyler appears to be UCLA's best bet as a break-away threat.

KICKING — John Sullivan averaged 39.5 yards in his brief early-season efforts last year, but he really improved to the No. 1 spot in the Spring. However, junior college Transfer Brett White showed tremendous strength and promise in both punting and place kicking and could move up in the Fall. Larry Frank, a soccer-style booter, also looked good in the place kicking role.

DEFENSE — This is the area of greatest emphasis by Coach Vermeil. The tremendous talents of Cliff Frazier at left tackle, the steady play of Greg Norfleet and Mike Martinez at nose guard and the fight between Sophomore Bob Crawford and Letterman Pat Sweetland at right tackle brought smiles to Coach Vermeil last Spring. Except that injuries to linebackers did not permit complete evaluation, the feeling generally was that the Bruins are improving up front. There is some lack of speed on the outside; and while the defensive secondary is somewhat questionable, they are a well-disciplined, intelligent group with Safetyman Kent Pearce as the best defensive back.

OFFENSIVE LINE — This may be the Bruins' greatest strength. Here is where UCLA has experience and great size. With lettermen at each interior position, the five-some of Gene Clark, 260; Randy Cross, 259; Art Kuehn, 257; Myke Horton, 254; and Phil McKinnely, 260, average no less than 258 pounds per man. In addition, the tight ends are rangy and with good size.

THE GENERAL OUTLOOK — Coach Vermeil says, "With our new offense, we want to force other teams to defense all aspects of the offensive system. I think we have players who can contribute to a winning team. But one thing we are going to do is to emphasize, sell and work on defensive football as the new Bruin image."

UCLA's 16th YEAR IN PAC-8

UCLA has been a member of the Pacific-8 Conference since it was organized July 1, 1959, and was originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The other founding members were California, Stanford, USC and Washington. Washington State became a member July 1, 1962. Oregon and Oregon State became members July 1, 1964. Here is UCLA's grid record against traditional Pac-8 rivals since 1959:

California	12	3	0	USC	5	9	1
Oregon	3	1	0	Washington	5	10	0
Oregon State	4	2	1	Washington State	6	0	0
Stanford	11	3	1	UCLA Totals	46	28	2

THE COACHING STAFF

LYNN STILES
(Utah '63)
Assistant Head Coach

Assistant head coach Lynn Stiles is the Bruins' defensive coordinator and coach of the inside linebackers. He served under Pepper Rodgers for three years (1971-73) and so is in his fourth season on the UCLA staff.

He came to UCLA in '71 after eight years as an assistant coach, first at Utah for three seasons (1963-65) and then at Iowa for five seasons (1966-70). Incidentally, he assisted former UCLA star Ray Nagel (now athletic director at Washington State) at both Utah and Iowa.

He also played under coach Nagel at Utah (1959-62) where he starred at guard, center and linebacker. He won All-Western Athletic Conference honors at guard. A fine student, he also was on the WAC's all-academic team in 1961.

Lynn prepped at Reno, Nev., High where he starred in football, basketball and track, winning All-State grid honors two years as a guard and linebacker.

He's married to the former Marigene Stephens and they have two children, a daughter, Staci Lee, 8, and a son, Shon Lynn, 4½. (Stiles was born April 12, 1941.)

JIM CRINER
(Cal Poly Pomona '62)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Jim Criner was retained by Dick Vermeil as a football staff member. This coach of the Bruins' offensive line with colleague Terry Donahue joined Pepper Rodgers' staff last year after serving with distinction as a top aide at BYU (1972), California (1970-71), Cal State Hayward (1969) and Utah (1967-68).

Prior to moving into collegiate coaching ranks, he was a highly-regarded prep mentor for five years, posting an impressive won-loss record of 46-13-2 over that period.

Criner starred in both football and baseball at Cal Poly Pomona. In fact, he was an All-America linebacker there in 1961 and also played fullback. A fine student, he was a double major in Biology and Physical Education.

Jim was a four-sport athlete at Coachella (Calif.) High, lettering in football, baseball, basketball and track.

Incidentally, Criner has three brothers who also are coaches, Walt and Bob at Coachella High and Herb at Mt. Diablo (Calif.) High, and two sisters, Nadene and Betty, who were recreation majors.

He's married to the former Ann Marie Shmorhun and they have two children, Mark, 7, and Kelli, 4. (Criner was born March 31, 1940.)

TERRY DONAHUE
(UCLA '67)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Former UCLA football star, Terry Donahue, is now in his fourth year as an assistant coach at his alma mater, three years under Pepper Rodgers and now in his first under Dick Vermeil. He and colleague Jim Criner are in charge of the Bruins' offensive line.

Terry returned to Westwood in 1970 after coaching four years (1967-70) at Kansas under Rodgers. He joined Pepper at KU in his first year (1967) out of UCLA and at 23 was one of the youngest major college assistant coaches in the country.

He starred as an outstanding defensive tackle for the Bruins for two years (1965-66) and was a starter on UCLA's 1966 Rose Bowl team which upset No. 1 ranked Michigan State, 14-12, in the New Year's Day classic.

After starring in football (linebacker) at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, Calif., he played frosh football at San Jose (Calif.) State in 1962. He entered UCLA in 1964 from Valley JC in San Fernando Valley where he hadn't played football. He became a UCLA standout in 1965 and '66 on teams which posted impressive 8-2-1 and 9-1 records.

Terry is married to the former Andrea Sogas and they are the proud parents of a daughter, Nicole Denise, 3. (Donahue was born June 24, 1944.)

ROD DOWHOWER
(San Diego State '65)
Assistant Varsity Caoch

Rod Dowhower is one of only two new assistant coaches — the other is Jim Mora — to join Dick Vermeil's staff at UCLA this season. The other seven Bruin aides are holdovers from Pepper Rodgers' staff.

He'll serve as the Bruins' offensive coordinator and coach of the quarterbacks and receivers, the same duties he performed so well for Don Coryell at first San Diego State for seven years (1966-72) and then, last year, at the St. Louis Cardinals of the NFL. Six of their SDS teams were champions, posting an amazing 60-4-1 record.

Among the top quarterbacks he tutored at SDS were Don Horn, Brian Sipe, Dennis Shaw and Jesse Freitas. His star receivers included Tom Reynolds, Isaac Curtis, Haven Moses, Tim Delaney and Ken Burrow.

Rod was an All-Coast quarterback on the San Diego State teams of 1963-64 which posted a two-year 15-4 record. Previously, he won All-America prep and JC honors at QB at Santa Barbara (Calif.) High and Santa Barbara City College. An all-around athlete, he also lettered in basketball and baseball at SBHS.

He and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of two sons, Brian, 3, and Deron, 2. (Dowhower was born April 15, 1943.)

JERRY LONG
(Oregon State '50)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Jerry Long is in his 10th year at UCLA as an assistant coach, six (1965-70) under Tommy Prothro, three under Pepper Rodgers (1971-73) and now in his first under Dick Vermeil. He's again handling the defensive line, the same duties he has performed with both ability and enthusiasm the past nine years.

Long was an assistant coach under Prothro for four years (1961-64) at Oregon State prior to coming to UCLA with Tommy.

Before returning to Oregon State, his alma mater, in 1961, he served as a top aide at Willamette University in Salem, Ore., for six years (1955-60). Following graduation from OSU in 1950, Jerry began his coaching career with five years in Oregon high schools.

Long entered Oregon State in 1946 and lettered three years in football as a guard. He prepped at Franklin High in Portland, Ore., his birthplace, where he starred in football and baseball, winning All-City grid honors.

He is married to the former Dorothy Jean Larson and they have three children, Karen and twins Randall and Diane. (Long was born July 29, 1929).

BILLIE MATTHEWS
(Southern University '52)
Assistant Varsity Caoch

Billie Matthews enters his fourth season on the UCLA football coaching staff this fall, three (1971-72-73) under Pepper Rodgers and now in his first under Dick Vermeil. He handles the running backs again this fall, the same duties he has had the past two years.

He joined Rodgers' Kansas staff in 1970 following an outstanding 12-year (1958-69) coaching career at Kashmere High in Houston, Tex.

A star quarterback at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., he led his team to an 11-0 record and the National Black championship as a freshman in 1948. During his four years, Southern compiled an amazing 37-4 record.

Billie prepped at Phyllis Wheatley High in Houston where he lettered in football and basketball. He won All-State honors at quarterback.

He and his wife, the former Gene Woods, have four children, Jacqueline, Kenneth, Kennette and Karen. Ken Adams, Billie's stepson, was a split end for three years (1969-70-71) at California. (Matthews was born March 15, 1930.)

JIM MORA
(Occidental College '57)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Jim Mora is one of only two new assistant coaches — the other is Rod Dowhower — to join Dick Vermeil's staff at UCLA this season. He's the coach of the Bruins' outside linebackers.

He comes to UCLA with excellent coaching credentials, including last six years (1968-73) as a top defensive aide at Colorado. Previously, he had served as an assistant at Stanford for one year (1967), as head coach at Occidental, his alma mater, for three years (1964-66) after beginning his career as an Oxy aide for four years (1960-63).

He's strictly a Los Angeles product, having prepped at University High and attended Oxy where he was an offensive and defensive end. He won All-America college honors. He graduated in 1957 with a major in Physical Education and obtained a Master's Degree at USC in 1967. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1957 to '60, being a lieutenant when honorably discharged.

Jim is married to the former Connie Saunders, a USC graduate, and they have three sons, Jimmy, 12; Michael, 9; and Stephen, 7. (Mora was born May 24, 1935.)

CARL PETERSON
(UCLA '66)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Carl Peterson is in his second season on the UCLA staff. After serving as head coach at Cal State College at Sonoma for three years (1969-71), he joined Pepper Rodgers' staff last year and was retained by Dick Vermeil as the Bruins' pass-receiving coach and also as the head coach and coordinator of the Junior Varsity football program.

He has a fine background for coaching at UCLA where he graduated in 1966 and also got his doctorate in Administration in Higher Education in 1970. Prior to going to Sonoma, he was an assistant coach at Los Angeles' Loyola High for two years (1967-68) and Long Beach's Wilson High for a season (1966).

Among the prep athletes he coached at Wilson High were such top stars as Dennis Dummitt, UCLA quarterback; Sid Smith, USC tackle, and Bob Grich, now starring in pro baseball with the Baltimore Orioles. (Grich graduated from UCLA in 1969.)

Carl played two years (1963-64) at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point before transferring to UCLA where his football career was cut short by knee surgery. He was an offensive split end.

Peterson was a three-sport athlete at Long Beach Wilson High, competing in football, baseball and basketball. (Carl was born May 26, 1943.)

DICK TOMEY
(DePauw '60)
Assistant Varsity Coach

After serving seven years under Pepper Rodgers, four (1967-70) at Kansas and three (1971-73) at UCLA, Dick Tomey accepted Dick Vermeil's offer to stay with the Bruins as defensive secondary coach. In addition, he's the coordinator of UCLA's football recruiting program.

Prior to joining Rodgers at KU, he was an assistant at Miami of Ohio for two years under two top coaches, John Pont (now at Northwestern) in 1962 and Bo Schembechler (now of Michigan) in 1963; at Northern Illinois in 1964; and at Davidson in 1965 and '66 under Homer Smith, former coaching associate at UCLA and now Army headman.

Five of the outstanding backs he's coached have been Kansas' John Riggins and UCLA's Kermit Johnson, James McAlister, Jimmy Allen and James Bright. He coached Johnson and McAlister in 1971 while serving as offensive backfield coach.

He lettered in football, at guard, for three years (1956-60) at DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind. He starred in baseball, winning all-conference honors as a catcher. He prepped at Elston High in Michigan City, Inc., where he lettered in football, baseball and participated in basketball.

He married to the former Mary Lewis and they have a son, Richie, 4½ and a daughter, Angela, born in April this year. (Tomey was born June 20, 1938.)

MIKE FLORES
(UCLA '74)
Graduate Assistant Coach

Mike Flores has been added to the UCLA football staff this season as a graduate assistant. He'll serve as the Bruins' assistant head Junior Varsity mentor. For past two years (1972-73) he has done a good job as a part-time JV aide at UCLA, his alma mater.

Mike was a starting quarterback for the 1971 Bruins but since then has turned to coaching. He came to UCLA from Santa Monica (Calif.) College where he starred for two years (1969-70) at quarterback. He won All-Metropolitan Conference and All-America JC honors in '70.

He prepped at St. Bernard's High in Playa del Rey, Calif., where he lettered in football and basketball.

Mike is married to the former Leslie Snyder and they are expectant parents in July after we went to press. (Flores was born Sept. 4, 1951.)

UCLA ADDS ANOTHER NCAA TITLE TO ITS EVER-GROWING LIST

UCLA enjoyed another good year in athletics in 1973-74.

The Bruins won still another NCAA crown the past season — in volleyball — and also finished second in soccer and track and third in basketball.

In the past five years, including 1973-74, the Bruins have won an amazing 16 team titles. In 1972-73, the Bruins captured three titles and in each of the three preceding years, they won four NCAA championships. These include: water polo, basketball, volleyball and tennis in 1969-70; basketball, volleyball, tennis and track in 1970-71; water polo, basketball, volleyball and track in 1971-72 and water polo, basketball and track in 1972-73.

No other school has ever had such back-to-back success in NCAA title competition; in fact, only one other school has ever won four team crowns in a single year. That was USC in 1962-63, winning in baseball, swimming, tennis and track.

In all, the Bruins have now won 31 coveted NCAA team championships down through the years, 10 in tennis (1950-52-53-54-56-60-61-65-70-71), nine in basketball (1964-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73), five in track (1956-66-71-72-73), four in volleyball (1970-71-72-74) and three in water polo (1969-71-72).

The Home of The Bruins . . .
THE MEMORIAL COLISEUM

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum may be 51 years old but it is a stadium that is continuously being improved. In fact, in the past 28 years, the Coliseum has made $7.5 million worth of improvements to maintain its lofty position among the super stadia of the world.

Since last season some 12,500 more theatre-type seats have been added, making a total of some 77,000 such comfortable seats to only 15,000 remaining bench-style seats for a capacity of approximately 92,000.

Yes, the Coliseum, built in 1923 and enlarged for the Olympic Games in 1932, is best known as the world's greatest football stadium, the home of not one, not two but three top teams, UCLA, USC and Los Angeles Rams. No other stadium in the world has three such major tenants.

The largest crowd ever to attend a Coliseum event was 134,254 for the last night of the 1963 Billy Graham crusade. The largest football crowd in Coliseum history was 105,236. But with the relatively-new theatre-type seating the full stadium capacity is now "only" 92,000.

Incidentally, with the football field having been moved 20 yards east this season, there will no longer be any temporary bleachers used.

One of the recent new Coliseum improvements is the sophisticated $1.6 million scoreboard which is in its third year of operation this season.

There are 90 entrances equipped with 74 turnstiles for easy access and exit of the facility. A modern press box sits high atop the south rim of the Coliseum. It has three levels serviced by a private elevator. The seating capacity is 216 on the first and second levels only.

The Coliseum is superbly operated, with Jim Hardy serving as the general manager of the Coliseum and adjacent Sports Arena, ably assisted by Ken Good, assistant general manager (Sports Arena) and Jerry Nielsen, assistant manager (Coliseum).

GAME NO. 1

Electrifying is the word for Condredge Holloway, Tennessee's All-America quarterback candidate. Last year, this 5-11, 175-lb. scrambler averaged 3.4 yards on 128 carries and completed 89 of 154 passes for 57.8% for 1,147 yards and 10 TD's. Only four were intercepted. But more significant than statistics was the virtuoso manner in which he led the Vols, who compiled an 8-4 record largely on the strength of Holloway's individual heroics.

The backfield that worked with Holloway last year has graduated, but senior tailback Paul Careathers and junior fullback Terry Moore along with some good-looking newcomers should maintain a strong ground game.

Speedy Stanley Morgan caught 22 passes for 511 yards and 4 TD's as a frosh last year. He and junior John Yarbrough (16 catches) are the leading returnees on the pass-receiving corps. On the offensive line, soph guard Mickey Marvin, 235, came on strong late last season and is a tremendous blocker.

Defensively, Tennessee was below par last season, but hopes are high for a return to better days. Tackle Robert Pulliam, linebacker Hank Walter and Safety Jim Watts will form the nucleus for the revamped defensive unit.

And the Vols' kicking game figures to be tremendous with the return of A-A place kicker Ricky Townsend (11 of 21 FG's and 27 of 29 EP's) and punter Neil Clabo (43.6 average). Both are seniors.

GAME NO. 2

After completing his first Spring Practice last April, new Iowa coach Bob Commings was more optimistic than he was before it started. "We're better off than we thought we'd be," admitted Commings, a former Hawkeye MVP who came out of the high school ranks at Massillon, O., to coach at his alma mater.

Commings (rhymes with hummings) has the task of correcting a program that suffered its worst season in 1973 (0-11). There are, however, some positive aspects.

Some 44 lettermen are on the roster and key personnel losses are few. Commings installed a Wing-T offense and a 5-2 "reading" defense during Spring Practice, which he labeled a success.

On offense, most of the key players are back. Four of the top five rushers return, headed by halfback Jim Jensen (505 yards and 6 TD's) and quarterback Butch Caldwell (312-4). Said Commings: "We'd like to balance a good running attack with a high percentage passing game. You must run to beat people."

The important QB position will have nine candidates this fall, headed by veterans Caldwell and Bob Ousley and soph Doug Reichardt. "Our quarterbacks have the ability and they made great progress during the spring," declared Commings.

Iowa must make big improvement on defense to have success in '74. The Hawkeyes yielded a record 401 points last fall. Earl Douthitt, an All-Big Ten second team choice for two seasons, returns to head up a secondary that ranked No. 3 in the nation on pass defense. Another super defender is soph linebacker Andre Jackson, who led the Big Ten in tackles during a sensational freshman year.

Widest Margin of Victory for MSU: 10 Points (13-3 in 1965)

GAME NO. 3 Woefully short of quality senior and junior players, Michigan State still may be a potent force in the 1974 collegiate football wars.

State expects 26 lettermen back from the 1973 team which compiled a 5-6 seasonal record and finished 4-4 in Big Ten standings. In the returning group there are only 11 seniors and just seven juniors.

Coach Denny Stolz, starting his second year at the helm, thinks that the offensive line and defensive line should be strong. On offense he looks to guards Greg Croxton, a junior, and Charles Wilson, a senior, and tight end Mike Cobb, a soph, to be pacesetters.

The defensive line bastions should be a pair of proven tackles — senior Jim Taubert and junior Greg Schaum. Behind them figures to be a corps of good linebackers, headed by a possibly great one in senior Terry McClowry, his identical twin brother Pat and soph Kim Rowekamp.

The offensive and defensive backfields and the kicking game are the trouble spots. All four starters in the defensive secondary are gone, the biggest loss being All-America Bill Simpson. Front runners for those spots are likely to be soph lettermen Tom Hannon, Ken Jones and Jim Epolito.

In the offensive backfield, much depends on the way senior quarterback Charles Baggett recuperates from knee surgery late last season. A healthy Baggett would give State a very outstanding running-passing quarterback. Senior fullback Clarence Bullock was a fine runner in 1973 and could be a real star this fall. Best bet at tailback is junior Tyrone Wilson.

GAME NO. 4

"Change" tells the story of the 1974 Utah team. A change in the coaching staff, a change in the offense and a change in the defense.

The coaching staff, headed by former Ute line coach Tom Lovat, has new faces and ideas in almost every facet of the game.

The offensive unit will see the return of 16 letterman from a year ago, only three of whom were starters. Lovat will use a "Pro" set and place more emphasis on the running game. This move was dictated by the return of two outstanding running backs, Ike Spencer (761 yards and 8 TD's) and Steve Marlowe (460 yards).

The second strongest area on offense will be the tackles. Dave Dahl (6-5, 255) and Mark Buchi (6-5, 240) will be among the best in the WAC.

The loss of All-WAC quarterback Don Van Galder leaves this key position up for grabs. The 1973 back-up QB, Lou Onofrio, looks like the strongest candidate, but several other prospects, including veteran Dan Payne, could push him.

The new Ute defense will resemble the 50 base Oklahoma set with five down linemen. Thirteen returning defenders, four of whom started at one time or another last year, are back.

The brightest spot on defense is the linebacking spots, headed by a potent All-WAC candidate John Huddleston (6-2, 235) and another talented vet, Rick Barsness (6-1, 210). Another bright spot is middle guard where Mapu Manutai (5-10, 220) returns to assume his starting position.

Generally, the defense will be young and inexperienced, but the attitude steming from Spring Practice indicates more intensity and toughness.

GAME NO. 5

Mike Boryla is gone. But Stanford is high on a sophomore quarterback named Mike Cordova — and, remember, Stanford is traditionally strong at this key position. Cordova has the power and strength to make the option go.

Says Card coach Jack Christiansen, "The loss of some key performers through graduation finds us looking for talented replacements in some critical areas, especially at quarterback and in the defensive secondary."

Stanford's running game should be sound since four lettermen, topped by fullback Scott Laidlaw, return. Laidlaw came on strong in late season, rushing for 132 yards against California in the "Big Game." Soph Ron Inge, an explosive runner, is tabbed for stardom.

The Cards have a corps of talented receivers, headed by All-Pac-8 flanker Bill Singler, who caught 31 passes last year. They are also high on Tony Hill, a frosh sensation, who is now back following knee surgery.

Stanford's offensive line appears much improved. The Cards lost three starters, but return 10 lettermen. Guards Gary Anderson (6-3, 235) and Alex Karakozoff (6-3, 230) saw considerable action as freshmen and could be running mates for the next three years.

Defensively, Stanford appears very solid in the line and at linebacker, but very green in the secondary. Both starting ends, Roger Stillwell (6-6½, 250) and Pat Donovan (6-5, 235), made All-America teams last year as juniors.

No less than seven experienced linebackers are returning, including All-Coast Gordon Riegel (6-5, 220).

It's pretty obvious that Stanford has outstanding personnel on hand for '74, headed by 12 starters from 33 returning veterans.

GAME NO. 6

Washington State, a steadily climbing football power in the Pac-8 under their spirited leader and coach, Jim Sweeney, figures to field another strong team in '74.

The Cougars are counting on some talented returnees, including 29 lettermen, to set the pace. They have one of the conference's premier runners in fullback Andrew Jones (6-2, 218), who not only gained 1,059 yards for the season but netted 130 or more in each of his last four games.

Then, at quarterback, the Cougars have another good one, Chuck Peck (6-2, 200), who took over at QB to lead WSU to four straight victories at the close of '73. A fine passer (1,023 yards), he fits in nicely with coach Sweeney's offensive theory of establishing a running attack and complementing it with the pass.

Other excellent runners returning are Vern Chamberlain (6-2, 210), who backed up Jones at FB last year, and Ron Cheatham (5-10, 175), who ran for 92 yards in one game last season. Back at flanker is starter Rick Reigle (6-3, 195), who caught 19 passes for 384 yards.

Another standout offensive returnee is two-time All-Pac-8 guard, Steve Ostermann (6-1, 220), a superb blocker.

Only three full-time starters return on defense, but several younger players, who saw a great deal of action in 1973, are back. Top defenders include All-Coast linebacker Gary Larsen (6-1, 204); safety Michael Carter (6-2, 188); and tackle Daryl Zanck (6-3, 234).

The Cougars also have a most capable place kicker back in Joe Danello, who booted 11 of 22 field goals (with most of his misses from 40 yards out or further) and 27 of 28 PAT's last year.

GAME NO. 7

Perhaps the best set of running backs in California history, enough offensive line experience returns along with talent at quarterback and speed at wide receiver to make the 1974 California Golden Bears a dangerous offensive football team.

Something, however, must be done about a defense which gave up 380 points last season.

Chuck Muncie (6-3, 225) became the first sophomore in Cal football history to be voted the team's "Most Valuable Player". Muncie led the Bears in rushing, 801 yards (5.1 per carry), in scoring with 12 TD's and in pass receiving.

Muncie will be joined by senior Howard Stickland, 641 rushing yards (5.25 per carry) and nine TD's, and by soph fullback Mark Bailey, who averaged 6.2 yards per carry before being sidelined after nine games. They all have sprinters' speed.

If Steve Bartkowski (passed for 1,854 yards in last two years) hasn't signed a pro baseball contract then the Bears will have two top quarterbacks. Otherwise, junior Vince Ferragamo will have to go it alone. He's thrown for 1,654 yards in past two seasons.

Junior Steve Rivera, 25 catches as a soph, was Ferragamo's leading target in high school (Los Angeles' Banning HS) and he's back to man the split end spot. Another top receiver is soph Wesley Walker, a 9.5 sprinter.

The leading defensive returnees are linebackers Ivan Weiss, 220, and Phil Heck, 235, who missed the last eight games of 1973 with a knee injury, safetyman Karl Crumpacker, 205, and tackle Rob Swenson, 225.

GAME NO. 8

After a disappointing 2-9 record last year, coach Jim Owens expects his Washington Huskies to be much improved in 1974. "We have many veterans coming back, and will have two lettermen at most positions," he said.

Returning at UW are 40 lettermen, including 16 starters, 7 on offense and 9 on defense. A further breakdown of the Huskies' vets reveals five sophomores, 21 juniors and 14 seniors. In other words, a most experienced group.

The Huskies are counting on a brilliant quarterback, Chris Rowland (6-2, 210) to lead their '74 resurgence. In last year's Pac-8 games, he was the top passer with 76 completions of 197 attempts for 1,239 yards and 14 TD's. Another capable veteran, Denny Fitzpatrick (6-0, 185), gives depth to this key position.

Both running back spots are up for grabs, with many talented and experienced people on hand. Sophs Donnie T. Waters and Wayne Moses showed much promise last fall before being injured. Willie Hendricks (6-1, 195), a power-running junior, has the inside track at fullback.

The receiving corps is solid with soph Scott Phillips (18 catches) and seniors Mark McDonald (22 catches) and Ken Conley (9 catches) back along with several other receivers who redshirted or were injured last year.

Defensively, the Huskies will be vastly improved. They are led by two All-Coast standouts in tackle Dave Pear (6-3, 235) and linebacker Dan Lloyd (6-2, 215).

And Washington has one of the nation's premier punters in Skip Boyd, All-Pac-8 kicker with a 42.95 average to rank No. 5 in NCAA statistics.

GAME NO. 9

"We will be better in 1974. We have the nucleous of a fine defensive team. We need to improve our offensive output, but I feel we have some people who are capable of doing that."

That's how new head coach Don Read evaluates his Oregon Ducks, a team that didn't fare too well last year (2-9 overall and 2-5 in Pac-8).

Thirty-three lettermen are returning, including 15 starters, 7 on offense and 8 on defense.

The Ducks' running backs are excellent, headed by senior Don Reynolds (5-8, 181) and soph Rick Kane (6-0, 185) to make Oregon's Veer offense go. Last year, Reynolds became only the second UO back in history ever to gain more than 1,000 yards in a season. He netted 1,002 carries for a 4.43 average and 6 TD's. Kane impressed by netting 430 yards on 90 carries for a 4.78 average and 5 TD's.

Pass receivers are another strong point. The Ducks' two top receivers of last year, All-Pac-8 tight end Russ Francis (6-6, 235) and flanker Bob Palm, are back. Francis caught 31 passes, Palm 27.

At quarterback, the Webfoots return their three top performers, Herb Singleton, Norval Turner and John Nehl. But coach Read is concerned, "Quarterbacking was inconsistent last year and must improve." Singleton, who completed 109 of 234 passes for 1,333 yards and 10 TD's last year, is the likely starter.

However, defense should be the strength of the '74 Oregon squad. Overall, the Ducks were second only to USC in conference defense last year. Among the top returnees are two All-Pac-8 performers tackle (now a linebacker) Reggie Lewis (6-1, 237) and safety Steve Donnelly (5-10, 168). Other all-star candidates are cornerback Mario Clark and end George Martin.

GAME NO. 10

How about 48 lettermen returning? Plus some outstanding newcomers. Those are two good reasons why Oregon State coach Dee "The Great Pumpkin" Andros "sees no reason why we can't have a good football team this fall."

The Beaver boss continues, "Under much adversity last season, the players kept their morale and wound up with a satisfying victory over Oregon. The system we use is sound. Our receivers need to run better pass routes than they did last year."

The Beavers went to a pro-type "I" formation last year, featuring the pass, and didn't fare too well as their 2-9 record attests. However, they figure to be much better this fall.

Certainly, they are two-deep in lettermen in the offensive backfield, headed by talented quarterbacks Alvin White (6-3, 220) and Steve Gervais (6-0, 180) and a hard-running fullback, Dick Mauer (5-11, 220), who also is the team's best receiver.

The offensive line also is loaded with experienced talent, topped by All-America center candidate Greg Krpalek (6-5, 250) and tackle Jeff Hart (6-5, 255).

Defensively, the only real problem appears to be the line. Otherwise, the Beavers are solid.

GAME NO. 11

The Rose Bowl has become a second home for USC's Trojans — they've played there six times in the last eight years — and John McKay is looking forward to another outstanding season in 1974.

"I see no reason why we shouldn't be better than last year," says the Trojan boss. "Our offense should be stronger, while our defense should be quicker and more experienced."

Fourteen USC starters return, seven on offense and seven on defense.

McKay considers four of them as All-America candidates, including quarterback Pat Haden, tailback Anthony Davis, split end Johnny McKay and, of course, linebacker Richard Wood, already a two-time All-American. "With Haden," says McKay, "no team will be better at quarterback than we are."

In other words, USC's attack could be awesome in '74.

Defensively, the Trojans combine both talent and experience. Both starting tackles, Art Riley (6-4, 248) and Gary Jeter (6-3, 237) are back — and figure to be bigger and better than ever.

Besides the great Mr. Wood, USC has three other veteran linebackers back, Kevin Bruce (5-11, 209), Dale Mitchell (6-3, 206) and Ed Powell (6-1, 219).

And three of the four defensive backs have returned for more duty, Danny Reece, Marvin Cobb and Charles Phillips, and they assure the Trojans of a quick and talented secondary.

UCLA IN ROSE BOWL

UCLA has played in six Rose Bowl games — but has won only one. That victory — and it was a big one — came in the Bruins' most recent appearance in the New Year's Day post-season classic in Pasadena, Calif., in 1966. They scored a stunning 14-12 upset over Michigan State, the country's No. 1 ranked team.

The 61st renewal of this granddaddy of all bowl games will be held Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1975, at 2:00 p.m. It'll pit the Big Ten champion vs. the Pac-8 titlist in this RB pact which started back in 1947. The Big Tenners hold an 18-10 series lead since the pact began but the Pac-8 teams have been coming strong in recent years, winning 6 of the last 9 games, 4 of the last 5.

Here are the quarter-by-quarter scores of UCLA's Rose Bowl games:

JANUARY 1, 1943

GEORGIA	0	0	0	9 — 9
UCLA	0	0	0	0 — 0

Scoring: G — Red Boyd blocks Bob Waterfield's punt for an automatic safety and two points. Frankie Sinkwich booms over from one-yard line. Leo Costa converts.

JANUARY 1, 1947

ILLINOIS	6	19	0	20 — 45
UCLA	7	7	0	0 — 14

Scoring: ——Julie Rykovich runs over from one-yard line. UCLA—Ernie Case on 1½-yard sneak. Case converts. I—Buddy Young goes over from two-yard line. Don Maechtle converts. Paul Patterson runs over from four-yard lines. Perry Moss on one-yard sneak. UCLA—Al Hoisch returns Maechtle's kickoff 103 yards for a Rose Bowl record which still stands. Case converts. I—Young booms over from one-yard line. Maechtle converts. Russ Steger intercepts Case's pass and returns 68 yards for TD. Stan Green intercepts Case's pass and returns 20 yards for TD. Maechtle converts.

JANUARY 1, 1954

MICHIGAN STATE	0	7	14	7 — 28
UCLA	7	7	0	6 — 20

BRUINS CAN BOAST OF 27 FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Last season, the Bruins had their biggest group of All-Americans in history as five Blue-and-Golders made a bonafide first team AA squad.

Here is UCLA's list of 27 such All-Americans down through the years, headed by quarterback Gary Beban who also won the coveted 1967 Heisman Trophy awarded annually to the "Outstanding Collegiate Football Player in the United States."

The Bruins can boast of a pair of two-time All-Americans, center/linebacker Donn Moomaw in both 1950 and '52 and fullback Bob Davenport in 1954 and '55.

UCLA VERSUS PAC-8 RIVALS

UCLA holds an all-time won-loss football record over each Pacific-8 Conference rival except USC and Washington. The Bruins and Huskies are tied in their rivalry. Otherwise, the Bruins hold series leads over Stanford, California, Oregon, Oregon State and Washington State.

The Bruins' all-time record against their seven Pac-8 rivals is 136 wins, 105 losses and 14 ties for a .561 winning percentage.

Here are UCLA's won-lost-tied and percentage results in series with each of the Pac-8 members in order they are played this season:

UCLA LEADS STANFORD, 23-19-2 for .545 winning percentage, in this series dating back to 1925. They've met each year since '25 except 1926-27-43-44-45. Note: Stanford and individual game results for each Pac-8 member can be found in "UCLA Game-by-Game Record" section in this press guide.

UCLA LEADS WASHINGTON STATE, 19-6-0 for .768 winning percentage, in this series dating back to 1928. They've met each year since '28 except 1929-30-34-35-42-43-44-45-46-47-51-52-54-59-60-61-62-63-64-65-66.

UCLA LEADS CALIFORNIA, 25-18-1 for .575 winning percentage, in this intra-University of California series dating back to 1933. They've met each year since '33 without exception.

UCLA AND WASHINGTON ARE TIED, 18-18-1 for .500 percentage, in this series dating back to 1932. They've met each year since '32 except 1934-35-43-44-45.

UCLA LEADS OREGON, 20-12-0 for .625 winning percentage, in this series dating back to 1928. They've met each year since '28 except 1943-44-55-59-60-61-62-63-64-65-66-67-68-71.

UCLA LEADS OREGON, 20-12-0 for .625 winning percentage, in this series dating back to 1928. They've met each year year since '30 except 1931-32-33-43-44-45-59-60-61-62-63-64-65-66.

USC LEADS UCLA, 24-13-6 for .628 winning percentage, in this crosstown series dating back to 1929. They've met each year since '29 except 1931-32-33-34-35.

HISTORY OF UCLA

UCLA, known to sports fans across the country because of its extensive record of success in athletics, is equally well known among scholars for its distinguished faculty and its superior academic opportunities.

The university's rise in both athletic and academic reputation has been rapid in comparison with many venerable institutions in its category; UCLA is only 55 years old, while Wisconsin, Michigan, and Illinois, for example, have passed their centennial year.

UCLA became part of the University of California in 1919 on the campus now occupied by Los Angeles City College on Vermont Avenue. The new 411-acre campus in Westwood opened in 1929, graduate instruction began in 1933, and the first professional school (engineering) was launched in 1945.

In recent years, UCLA enrollment has exceeded the planned limit of 27,500, and its academic standing has also surpassed its earlier prospects. Specifically, the 1970 ranking of graduate faculties by the American Council on Education confirmed that UCLA had 12 departments in the top 10 in the nation and 17 more in the top 20. Together, these rankings gave UCLA a place in the leading dozen American universities.

UCLA's quality instruction is matched by its eminence in research. Some gauge of its research abilities is the amount it receives from the federal government in grants, fellowships, and other support. In 1971-73, the last year for which comparative figures are available, UCLA was sixth in the nation, with $63,000,000. In the number of advisory committee memberships held by faculty with federal agencies, UCLA was third in the nation in 1972, with a total of 112.

Underlying UCLA's academic and research leadership are facilities which serve the scholar and researcher well. One of the features of the $380,000,000 campus is a teaching hospital (operated in conjunction with the UCLA School of Medicine) which was ranked 7th in the nation in a national survey of physicians conducted by Today's Health. A key facility is the library, with the largest research collection in the southwest, some 3,400,000 volumes. The 1970 A.C.E. report rated it fourth in the nation in overall strength and quality.

In science, the university has such special facilities as a 100 kw. nuclear reactor, a linear accelerator, and laboratories for the study of plasma physics and dating of ancient objects by means of isotopes.

No less impressive are the facilities in the arts, which include the remarkable ethnic art collection of the Museum of Cultural History and the collection of 400 exotic musical instruments by the Institute of Ethnomusicology.

A strong faculty, working in this unusual setting, helps to produce graduates who represent the sophisticated manpower needed by California. UCLA students, admitted under high entrance requirements, have demonstrated unusual accomplishment in the classroom as well as on the athletic field.

DR. CHARLES E. YOUNG
UCLA Chancellor

UCLA's Chancellor, 42-year old Dr. Charles E. Young, is a confirmed sports fan who has been quoted as saying, "excellence in the classroom and in the laboratory are compatible with excellence on the playing field and in the gymnasium."

A high school football player, he stands 6 feet 3 inches tall and weighs just under 200 pounds. He attends most UCLA football and, basketball games and home track meets — often roaming the sidelines to encourage players.

Beyond athletic interests he has built a solid record of academic achievement during his six years as chief executive of UCLA — one of America's most distinguished universities.

Chancellor Young took office on Sept. 1, 1968, succeeding Dr. Franklin Murphy who became Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Times Mirror Company in Los Angeles.

UCLA's present Chancellor was born in San Bernardino, Calif., on Dec. 30, 1931. There he attended high school and junior college. During the Korean War he enlisted in the Air Force and attained the rank of sergeant as Personnel Services Supervisor, serving in California and Japan.

When he returned to civilian life, he enrolled in the newly-established University of California, Riverside. During his senior year in 1955, he demonstrated his "take charge" qualities by becoming UC Riverside's first student body president.

He then enrolled at UCLA where he earned his M.A. (1957) and his Ph.D. (1960), both in political science. His doctoral dissertation was on the subject of "Politics of Political Boundary Making." He spent the year of 1958 in Washington, D.C., on a Congressional Fellowship.

In 1959, UC President Clark Kerr lured him back to California to join his staff. For about a year he served as staff assistant to the academic team drawing up the Master Plan for Higher Education in California, worked on the University Growth Plan, and studied decentralization of the University. He also taught political science at Davis in the spring of 1960.

In the fall of 1960, after Dr. Murphy had been appointed UCLA Chancellor, he chose as his assistant the young man-on-the-go. In 1962 Dr. Young took another step up the administrative ladder to become Assistant Chancellor, and in 1963 he became a Vice Chancellor. His responsibilities included handling administrative, budgetary and student problems.

Chancellor Young holds an academic appointment as professor of political science at UCLA, and his writing and teaching have been in the area of American political theory and politics.

UCLA's 56th YEAR OF FOOTBALL

This is UCLA's 56th year of playing intercollegiate football. During this span the Bruins have developed from an athletic nonentity to one of the country's foremost all-around athletic powers, a university which strives for and attains excellence in both academics and athletics. The Bruins go into this 1974 season with an all-time football record of 281 wins, 213 losses and 26 ties for a .565 winning percentage.

Dick Vermeil is UCLA's 12th football coach. The others were Fred Cozens (1919), Harry Trotter (1920-22), James Cline (1923-24), Bill Spaulding (1925-38), Babe Horrell (1939-44), Bert LaBrucherie (1945-48), Red Sanders (1949-57), George Dickerson and Bill Barnes (1958), Bill Barnes (1959-64), Tommy Prothro (1965-70) and Pepper Rodgers (1971-73).

Faculty Athletic Representative

Dr. Thomas L. Jacobs, a research chemist and avid sports fan, is in his sixth year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative. He began his present term in 1969 after an earlier period of service in 1961.

As the Chancellor's representative to the Pacific-8 and NCAA, Dr. Jacobs works with faculty representatives from the other member schools in determining all policy matters and approving all governing legislation at the conference and national levels, including eligibility of student athletes. In 1972, he served as president of the Council of the Pacific-8 Athletic Conference.

Dr. Jacobs is a long-time spectator at UCLA athletic events.

As a teacher and scholar, Dr. Jacobs is an organic chemist who has done notable fundamental research on the mechanisms of organic reaction, particularly of acetylenic and allenic compounds. He has studied the polymerization of these compounds as well. He is interested in industrial organic chemistry and has been for a long time consultant to the 3-M Company.

During World War II, Dr. Jacobs was director of an anti-malaria program for the Office of Scientific Research and Development. He also has served for many years on UCLA Academic Senate committees and during 1967-68 was the chairman of the Senate. In addition, he has served as chairman of the UCLA and University Budget Committees and in 1965-66-67 was on the Budget Review Board of the University.

He took his Bachelor's degree at Cornell College in Iowa in 1930, and his Ph.D in chemistry at Cornell University in N.Y. in 1935. After teaching four years at Harvard, he joined the UCLA faculty in 1939.

When his teaching and research permit, Dr. Jacobs is an active golfer and enjoys camping, hiking, and angling. He is a member of the Sierra Club.

His own athletic career includes three years of football and two years of basketball at Forest City High School in Iowa and one year of football at Waldorf Junior College, also in Forest City.

Dr. Jacobs lives with his wife Ruth in West Los Angeles. They have a married daughter, Antoinette Kayser, herself a mother of three boys, who lives in Santa Barbara, and two married sons, Richard, who graduated from UCLA, and William, a graduate of UC Davis and recipient of a UCLA Master's degree.

J. D. MORGAN

Director of Athletics

J. D. Morgan has now completed his first 11 years — July 1, 1963 through July 1, 1974 — as UCLA's director of athletics. And it has been a remarkable decade plus one year of achievement and growth for the Bruins, a period during which they won an unprecedented 23 NCAA team championships.

This is the most NCAA titles ever won by a university and an athletic director over such a span: nine in basketball (1964-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73), four each in track (1966-71-72-73) and volleyball (1970-71-72-74) and three each in tennis (1965-70-71) and water polo (1969-71-72).

But UCLA's entire 18-sport program has been most successful under his astute guidance and leadership since he succeeded the late Wilbur Johns in 1963.

And of course, J. D. is most proud of UCLA's amazing success in NCAA basketball, in which the Bruins have won nine titles in the past 11 years, and also the Bruins' first Rose Bowl victory in 1966 game with a stunning 14-12 victory over top-ranked Michigan State.

In addition, his tenure has been highlighted by the move of the Athletic Department into new and permanent quarters, the return of Bruin basketball to the campus in Pauley Pavilion, opening of a new boathouse for crew at Marina del Rey and the opening in 1969 of Drake Stadium, a beautiful track and field facility.

He has been at UCLA since 1946 employed in the positions of accountant, associate business manager, tennis coach and now athletic director.

Morgan's tennis coaching career, in which he turned out 16 straight winning seasons, was featured by no less than seven NCAA team championships (1952-53-54-56-60-61-65) and four national runner-up teams (1962-63-64-66). He coached eight NCAA singles or doubles champions, including Arthur Ashe, Ian Crookenden, Allen Fox, Larry Huebner, Ron Livingston, Larry Nagler, Charles Pasarell and Bob Perry. He retired from coaching following the 1966 season.

In 1966, J. D. was cited for "outstanding professional achievement in the field of athletics" at UCLA's Anniversary Day ceremonies. He completed a six-year term on the NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee this fall. In 1973, he was honored by the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club as "Athletic Director of Distinction."

He was born in Newcastle, Okla., on March 3, 1919. He attended Cordell, Okla., High School where he was an outstanding four-sport athlete in football, basketball, baseball and tennis. Then, at UCLA, he was a four-year letterman in tennis, serving as 1941 team captain and No. 1 player. A back injury kept him from playing football for the Bruins.

Morgan graduated from UCLA's School of Business Administration in 1941. During World War II he commanded a Navy torpedo boat.

He is married to the former Cynthia Gray Crane, who is very active in University women's affairs. They have a son, Kevin, 20, and a daughter, Pamela, 13.
